Reply:

In the year of 2015, CPPRI has published a Compendium of Indian Paper Industry, in this publication state wise list of paper mills owned by private identities have given. This is a paid information and you can purchase this publication by paying Rs. 2500/- from our Delhi Base office or from CPPRI -Saharanpur office.

Question C: List of all types of PULP used for Production of Paper.

Reply:

CPPRI does not collect individual paper mill pulp utilization. However, we have the consolidate categorization of mills using three segments of raw materials such as Agro based Paper Mills, Wood-Based Paper Mills and Recycled Fibre based Paper Mills.

As of now, 73 % of total production is coming from RCF based mills and around 18 % of total production is contributing by Wood-based paper mills remaining production is contributed by Agro-Based paper mills.

Question D: List of Any new/alternative source of PULP which can be used for paper production.
