Information Sought : Respected Sir/Madam,

I seek information under the RTI Act 2005 regarding applicability of DoPT rules on NOC and HRA concerning CPPRI and central govt employees.

Query 1:

Is Central Pulp and Paper Research Institute CPPRI Saharanpur an autonomous body under administrative control of Government of India and DoPT If yes is it mandatorily required to follow all DoPT service rules instructions and OMs Kindly provide supporting orders or circulars

Query 2:

If a permanent employee of CPPRI is under probation and applies for a post in another central government department is the employee eligible for NOC If yes what is the process for issuing NOC and under which rule or OM is it allowed If the department denies NOC is it mandatory to provide a written reason order or OM Please provide relevant guidelines rules and OM copies

Query 3:

Is a central government employee on probation eligible for House Rent Allowance HRA if they opt not to stay in departmental accommodation and instead live in private accommodation If not what are the current rules or OMs in force Kindly provide justification and a copy of the relevant order

Query 4:

If an institution like CPPRI does not follow DoPT norms on NOC or HRA what is the prescribed process Are DoPT rules mandatory for such autonomous bodies or do they follow their own rules What is the role of DoPT if such institutions ignore the rules Please provide supporting instructions or orders

Kindly provide factual pointwise replies to all queries along with certified copies of relevant orders circulars or OMs If any part of the information is exempt under Sections 8 or 9 of the RTI Act please cite the exact clause General replies like against policy or institutional discretion are not valid grounds for denial under RTI

If any fee is applicable for providing document copies I am ready to pay as per norms

Thank you
